

Natalie Hopkins

Hello

I feel that this may come up a lot due to recent events.

I do feel that press bias has had a massive impact on politics and election results.

There is one thing to have a free press, however, I think the press have an obligation to write about facts only rather than lean any political way.

Journalists should be obligated to be unbiased and rigorously question all politicians of all parties.

Kind regards

Natalie Hopkins